

GOD Time

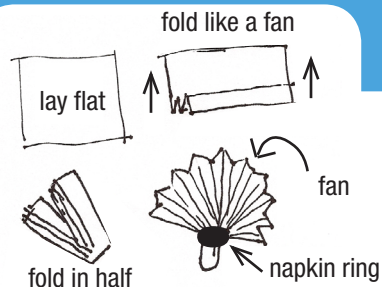

Day 1

Read Colossians 3:20

Week 1 03

How's your attitude while taking out the trash? Do you sulk while doing your homework? At your 8:30 bedtime, do you gripe that your friend stays up until 9:00? It pleases God when you obey and ALSO honor your parents with a good attitude while doing it!

When a parent asks you to set the table for dinner, ALSO fold the napkins in this fancy way:

THANK God for your parents.

GOD Time

Day 2

Read Proverbs 18:21a

Week 1 03

Think of that teacher at school you call by a not-so-nice nickname. Your words have power, so avoid those mean whispers, unkind jokes, and complaining remarks. Honor your teachers with words that build up instead of tear down.

Begin at the smiley face and trace a path through the encouraging words to get your "A+."

yes, ma'am	bad	shut up	fat	great
nice	thank you	good	boring	please
dork	smart	yes, sir	awesome	fun
dumb	sweet	cool	pretty	ugly

A+

252 BASICS®

ASK God to help you choose words wisely.

Day 4

Read Romans 13:1-2; extra verses: 3-7

Week 1 03

Did you know God is the top authority figure? No one outranks Him. That means all authorities on earth are under Him, and having governing authorities is part of His plan for governing our communities. He created the whole idea of "authorities" to help and protect you. You can honor these important authorities in your community by praying for them often.

Get a parent to help you make cookies or cupcakes to take to your local police station. Put a note with the treat to let the officers know you are praying for them.

KNOW that God is watching over you.

Day 3

Read Colossians 3:23

Week 1 03

What if God was your coach or piano teacher? Bet you'd practice every day and work your hardest then! Honor these people by working as hard for them as you would for the Lord.

Finish the story to help "Sam" show honor:

Sam plays _____. He has to practice _____ hours, _____ times a week. Tom invited him to _____ but Sam said, "_____." When Sam went to _____ that week, he told his _____, "_____ for your help!"

252 BASICS®

LISTEN to what God says about work.
