Day 1

Read Mark 16:15

Week 1 02

Isn't it hard to keep good news to yourself? How about if you just won a trip to Disney World®? You'd tell a friend, right? Just like you would want to tell your friend the good news of your trip, a TRUE friend wants to tell others about Jesus and what He did for us on the cross. That is the best news anyone could possibly get!

Can you unscramble these words?

dreasp hef godo swen!

THANK God for sending
Jesus to die on the cross for you.

Day 2

Read John 3:16

Week 1 02

Do you know what you would say if you wanted to tell someone about who Jesus is? Today's verse lays out exactly what God wants someone to know about who Jesus is and what He has done for them. We know from this verse that if we believe in Jesus (which means asking Him to forgive us and to be our Savior), He will, and we can live forever with Jesus in heaven. Look closely at the four main parts of this Scripture:

God loved God gave We believe We receive

Practice saying what you would tell a friend about Jesus and what He has done for them. Here are some questions to help: Who does God love? Who did God give? What do we need to believe? What will we receive when we believe?

ASK God for courage to tell your friends about Jesus.

Day 4

Read Matthew 5:16

Week 1 02

Another way to help a friend believe in Jesus is by the way you live. God wants our actions to reflect Him, or as this verse says it, to "shine" for Him. Your friends can see God shine in you when you obey Him and try to be like Jesus. Did you know that when you choose kindness, compassion, and forgiveness that you shine for Jesus? When you choose gentleness, self-control, patience, and peace, you also shine for Jesus.

Write the words of Matthew 5:16 on a card and tape it to your bedside lamp. Every time you turn on your light say this verse and ask God to help you SHINE so that your friends will see God in you.

KNOW God wants you to shine for Him.

Day 3

Read Romans 5:8

Week 1 02

You can also help a friend believe in Jesus by telling her if you've asked Jesus to be your Savior and how it happened. What's your story? It is really cool to hear all of the different stories of how people have received God's gift of love, forgiveness, and eternal life through Jesus. When we hear how God has worked in people's lives to help them know Him and trust Jesus, it grows our faith.

Ask some of the people in your life about how they asked Jesus to be their Savior.

Watch your faith grow!

LOOK for friends who need to know about Jesus.
