Day 1

Read Romans 15:7

Week 1 02

What if God only loved people with brown hair, or people who spoke a certain language? Thank goodness God doesn't play favorites! He loves everyone and He wants you to accept and serve all people, including those who are different from you.

Draw the faces of three friends who are each very different. Remember that God wants you to accept these friends and serve them whenever you can.

THANK God for accepting and loving us.

Day 2

Read Philippians 2:4

Week 1 02

As you're working on your B-ball skills, shooting baskets, the toddler in the yard next door falls and starts crying. Your mom comes out to see what's the matter, but you hadn't even noticed the kid. Sound familiar? If so, then God wants you to work on some new skills and learn to pay attention to the needs of others.

Start an "I Spy" notebook. Jot down notes about family and friends to help you know how you can serve them.

252 BASICS®

ASK God to help you notice the needs of others.

Day 4

Read 2 Corinthians 9:8

Week 1 02

When you do a "good work," God will provide what you need in order to do it. On Day 3, you brainstormed a service for someone. Don't chicken out now; do what you said you would do! If you're shy, God will help you speak. If you need helpers, God will provide them. Be the servant that God means you to be and trust Him to give you all you need.

With a parent's permission, speak to the person you plan to serve. Arrange a place and time to do your service.

KNOW that God will help you do your "good work."

Day 3

Read Hebrews 13:16

Week 1 02

How many boys your age would like to have a manicure? Not many, right? It's important to serve in a way that's needed and wanted. If your grandfather can't see well, he might like you to read to him. If your mom sprained her ankle, she might appreciate you bringing in the mail. A caring "servant" finds out what people need.

Pick a neighbor or family member who needs your help. Brainstorm ideas of how you and your parents could help.

252 BASICS®

LOOK for ways to serve your "neighbors."
